HAGUE:

A Memorial presented to the States General, by M. Norff Minister of Munster.

High and Mighty Lords,

THE great Dean, great Treasurer, Vidame, and other Canons of the Cathedral, who during the Vacancy of the See have the Administration of the Bishoprick of Munster, being inform'd of the Resolution taken by your High Mightinesses the 6th of this Month in Relation to the Orders you have given to the commanding Officers of the Troops of Munster that are in the Service and Pay of your State, have commanded the underwritten Councillor and Resident of the said Bishoprick of Munster to represent to your High Mightinesses by this Memorial, That their Intention in sending a Commissary of War, was not to Review the said Troops or oblige them to take a new Oath; but only to inform them that the Administration of the Bishoprick being continued by his Imperial Majesty in the Chapter, they may know what they have to do in the present Jurisdiction. And seeing the said Chapter has by renewing the Treaty with your High Mightinesses, preserv'd the same Property and the same Power over those Troops as had his late Highness the Prince of glorious Memory, the said Prelates and Canons conceive they have not by this Act infring'd the said Treaty or given your High Mightinesses just Cause to take the Resolution abovemention'd, his said Highness having never been debarr'd from giving like Orders to the said Troops, who according to the Agreement made with M. de Salisch are under an Oath as well to the great Chapter as to your High Mightinesses. Seeing by this Recital it appears the Informations that gave Birth to the foresaid Resolution were not conformable to the Fact, and that the Prelates and Canons abovemention'd are thoroughly dispos'd to perform and observe the said Treaty in its full Extent, and to live in a perfect good Intelligence with your High Mightinesses; they promise themselves you will make no Difficulty to revoke the said Orders, to the End no Divisions or Troubles may happen among the said Troops, assuring you that they will never send them any Order that may divert them from their Duty and Service, or that may be repugnant to the said Treaty. Done at the Hague the 20th of September 1706.

Sign'd, Norff.

An Extract from the Register of the Resolutions of their High Mightinesses the States General of the United Netherlands.

On the 20 Die Septembris 1706 was read in the Assembly the Memorial of the Resident M. Norff, requiring that the Resolution pass'd by their High Mightinesses the 6th of this Month relating to Orders sent to the Commanding Officers of the Regiments of Munster in the Service of this State, might be revok'd.

After Deliberation had thereupon, it is thought fit and resolv'd that in Answer to the foresaid Memorial it shall be signified to the said M. Norff. That their High Mightinesses persist in the Resolution they have pass'd, and cannot consent that any Orders should be sent to the said Regiments as long as they are in their Service, without their Knowledge and Participation; That if any Orders which shall be judg'd necessary, be first communicated to them, they will not oppose them, if they find them conformable to the Treaties and Capitulations: But, that such clandestine Orders as in a secret Manner have been intended to be given to the foresaid Regiments, are by their High Mightinesses suspected, and deem'd irregular and repugnant to all good Order and Equity: That besides, their High Mightinesses wonder to see by the foresaid Memorial, that the Prelates and Canons mention'd therein, do, as well with Reference to the said Orders given as in other Respects, assume to themselves the Name and Authority of the Chapter, as if the See of Munster were now vacant, when 'tis notorious to the whole World that they are but the lesser part of the Voices of the Chapter, and that the greater part have in a regular and legal manner, conformably to the Rights and Liberties of the Chapter, actually chosen a new Bishop: That therefore their High Mightinesses cannot by any means acknowledge the Name and Authority of the Chapter to be in the foresaid Prelates and Canons, nor will receive any more Memorials on that Point from M. Norff. Further, that the Assurances given by the said Prelates and Canons of their Readiness to make good as far as in them lyes the Treaties made, and to keep up Friendship and a good Correspondence with this State, are acceptable to their High Mightinesses: That they cannot give greater Proofs of the Uprightness of those Intentions, than by owning the Bishop elect (to whom and to the Majority of the Canons their High Mightinesses are by the foresaid Treaties engag'd) and by undertaking nothing to the Prejudice of the Election legally made: That a contrary Proceeding would unavoidably produce Animosities and Differences, in which their High Mightinesses themselves: And therefore, that they expect from the Wisdom and Discretion of the said Prelates, that they will not give Ground or Countenance to Difficulties which may disturb the needful Quiet in the Neighbourhood of this State, and plunge the Diocess of Munster into great Calamities.
